

Night work and traffic changes on Bourke Road between Gardeners Road and Doody Street, Alexandria

Work is underway to widen Bourke Road between Gardeners Road and Orchard Road. To facilitate the new road pavement and footpath construction trees on the eastern side of Bourke Road will be removed.

Due to the necessary road closures, this work will be carried out at night for the safety of road users and workers.

This work will be carried out over three night shifts on Monday 14 January, Tuesday 15 January and Wednesday 16 January. In the case of unforeseen delays, work may also be undertaken on Friday 18 January.

What we're doing

Night work is scheduled to occur on the eastern and western sides of Bourke Road. It will also include tree removal. A licenced arborist will be on site during this work and was engaged in the planning approval process. Work is scheduled for the following shifts (weather permitting):

- Monday 14 January from 9pm to 5am
- Tuesday 15 January from 9pm to 5am
- Wednesday 16 January from 9pm to 5am
- Friday 18 January from 9pm to 5am (contingency date)

Equipment to be used during these works will include hand tools, chainsaw, trucks, elevated work platforms, cranes, light vehicles, road saws and excavators. Traffic controllers will be onsite to ensure pedestrian access will be maintained through the area at all times. A map showing the location of this work is overleaf.

How this affects you

A full road closure will be in place on Bourke Road between and Gardeners Road and Doody Street. This road closure will be in place for the duration of each night work shift. Detours will be in place for motorists. These detours are shown on the map overleaf.

Traffic controllers will be in place to direct pedestrians and motorists.
